LEGAL ACTION(s) or BBB COMPLAINTS FILED AGAINST YOUR COMPANY

Please list in detail any legal action(s) or complaint(s) filed against your company or any principal(s) of your company in regard to your home watch business in the past 24 months.

Your acceptance into the FHWA is conditional based on the vetting we have yet to do on you, the principal(s) and your company. This application by itself in no way guarantees your accreditation or membership, we will provide you with an actual certificate of accreditation upon your acceptance after the vetting process.

Membership acceptance is provided on a case by case basis and is solely at the discretion of the FHWA. Applicant(s) will NOT be denied acceptance based on race, color, religion, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), national origin, age, disability or genetics.

I confirm and attest the information provided above in this application is true and factual as of this date

OTHER TERMS & CONDITIONS

As a legal representative of the company notated above and below (the Company) I agree and the Company agrees to the following terms and conditions of membership in the Florida Home Watch Association.

I hereby provide permission for the FHWA to verify and investigate any of the information provided by me, my business partner(s) or the Company within the membership application or provided in any supporting documentation provided as part of this application.

I affirm the Company will always conduct business with the customer's best interest first and foremost being honest, professional and trustworthy with every interaction.

I further affirm that if any member of the Company should be found to have been criminally convicted or it is discovered they have acted unethically a review of the Company's membership in the FHWA will be conducted. If a review of this type is necessary the findings will be provided to the Company in writing within an appropriate time frame based on information that can be obtained.

I understand that a membership is never transferrable. I further understand that the FHWA should be notified of any change in ownership, business principles or business location.

I understand this application is for one location only and that additional locations owned or managed by the Company need to apply for membership on their own merit.

I understand that myself and my business partners/principals will have a criminal background check performed prior to the acceptance of the Company to the FHWA. The information gained from this action will remain strictly private.

I understand and affirm that myself and the Company will conduct business at all times abiding by the code of conduct and ethics set forth by the Florida Home Watch Association.

I understand that only accredited members in good standing have permission to use the FHWA logo. I further affirm that the Company will not use this logo until entry into the membership. As well I affirm if the Company does not renew or their accreditation is terminated the logo will be removed from all media and will no longer disseminate media containing the logo.

OUR COMMITMENT TO YOU

The FHWA affirms and understands the Company is a separate business, affiliated only through membership and in no way will the FHWA interfere in your day to day operations. We will only act in an advisory capacity and only when approached by the Company.

We will always provide accurate information, prompt response to your concerns and the benefit of any bits of wisdom we know to help your business prosper.

We will do our best to stay informed with all the latest news, trends and tools that will help us all provide the quality service expected and deserved by Florida property owners.

We will always strive to be fair and equitable for and between members, especially those within the same geographic areas of service.

We will provide the same level of effort (110%) whether our membership be 10, 100 or 1000.

Our interaction with you, with potential customers, local or state officials will always be professional and courteous so as to always reflect positively upon the Florida Home Watch Industry.

We will always listen and share the wisdom you have accumulated over your years of service to the home watch industry.

If you are new to home watching and you have a suggestion, we will listen because you are NEW!
None of us have cornered the market on innovation or useful time saving techniques.
